Desk-CU-Cdn

Shastri Bhawan, New Delhi
Dated 7th May, 2019

To

The Registrars of all Central Universities

Subject: Permission for the recruitment of teaching and non-teaching positions in Central Universities -reg.

Madam/ Sir,

A large number of teaching and non-teaching positions in Central Universities have been lying vacant for a long time, as a result of litigation over reservation roster. The reservation issue is now settled as the Government has issued an Ordinance on 7.3.2019. It is necessary for the Central Universities to start the recruitment process immediately to improve the teaching standards and to ensure that studies of students are not affected.

2. Election Commission of India was requested to give its clearance/permission for starting/continuing the recruitment process for regular teaching and non-teaching vacant posts in Central Universities.

3. Election Commission of India vide letter No. 437/6/CG/ECI/LET/FUNCT/MCC/2019/202 dated 01st May, 2019 has conveyed no objection, from MCC angle to the starting of recruitment process subject to the condition that declaration of result and appointments shall be done after completion of election process.

This is for your information and necessary action, please.
